REPORT ON AN ORIENTATION FOR UGC NET

An orientation session for NET/JRF was organized by the Minority Cell and the NET Coaching Centre of MES Kalladi College, Mannarkkad, on 15th November 2024. The session, held at Ambedkar Hall from 10:30 AM to 4:00 PM, aimed to provide guidance and support for postgraduate students in social sciences preparing for the UGC NET/JRF examination. The programme commenced at 10:30 AM with a welcome address by Mrs. Femina E.P., the Coordinator of the NET Coaching Centre. Following this, Mrs. Shameera M.K., Coordinator of the Minority Cell, delivered the presidential address, highlighting the importance of such initiatives for academic growth. The resource person for the session was Dr. Ummer V.M., Associate Professor, Department of Arabic, SNGS College, Pattambi. He delivered an engaging session focusing on the General Paper of UGC NET, which tests the teaching and research aptitude of candidates. The session covered fundamental concepts and topics, allowing students to gain a clearer understanding of the paper's structure and content. A key highlight of the session was the interactive Q&A segment, where students actively participated by asking questions and clarifying their doubts. This interaction significantly enhanced their understanding of the subject. The afternoon session featured mock tests for the General Paper, providing participants with an opportunity to evaluate their preparedness and familiarize themselves with the exam pattern. The orientation was well-received, with participants finding it both informative and engaging. The session concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mrs. Manju R.V., Assistant Professor, Department of History, who expressed gratitude to all those involved in organizing the event. Overall, the programme was a success, equipping students with valuable insights and boosting their confidence for the NET/JRF examination.

‘PATHWAY’
SOCIAL LIFE WELLNESS PROGRAMME 2025
MES Kalladi College Mannarkkad, Palakkad
2025 January 22,23,24
REPORT

The 'Pathway' Social Life Wellness Programme, focusing on premarital counselling sessions, was successfully organized at MES Kalladi College, Mannarkkad, in association with Coaching Centre for Minority Youth, Palakkad, from January 22 to 24, 2025. The initiative, sponsored by the Government of Kerala, Department of Minority Welfare, aimed to provide students with essential insights and skills necessary for a successful and harmonious married life.

The program successfully addressed the specific needs of individuals in the premarital phase, covering crucial topics that contribute to the foundation of a healthy and thriving marital relationship.

Day 1: 22.01.2025

Mr. Jamaludheen C led an engaging ice-breaking session, creating a comfortable atmosphere for participants. The session transitioned into an introduction to the concept of marriage for wellness. In the afternoon, Ms. Sabira. V. focused on honing effective communication skills, particularly in the context of couples and online health communication.

Day 2: 23.01.2025

N.P. Mohamed Rafi initiated the day with discussions on effective management of in-law relationships and conflict resolution, crucial aspects in a marital setting. In the afternoon, Adv. K. Ajitha provided valuable insights into the legal and religious aspects surrounding marriage, aiding participants in understanding the broader context.

Day 3: 24.01.2025

On the last day during the morning session, Mr. Abdu Naser TK guided students through the intricacies of family budgeting, promoting financial wellness within families. The program concluded with Ms. Noosiya E facilitating discussions on topics related to infancy, adolescence, parenting, sexual education, and pregnancy.

The 'Pathway' Social Life Wellness Programme for premarital counselling sessions received positive feedback from participants. The specialized focus on topics relevant to couples embarking on married life, combined with the support from the Government of Kerala, Department of Minority Welfare, contributed to the success of the initiative in promoting healthy relationships within the community

Inaugural Session:

The inaugural session of 'Pathway' Social Life Wellness Programme 2025, a 3-day premarital course sponsored by the Directorate of Minority Welfare, Government of Kerala, held at the Maulana Azad Hall of MES Kalladi College, Mannarkkad, Palakkad, on January 22, 2025 at 12 Noon. Shihab AM, the event coordinator, extended a warm welcome to all participants, setting a positive tone for the program. Dr Rajesh C, the Principal of MES Kalladi College Mannarkkad, presided over the session, emphasizing the significance of the premarital course in promoting social well-being. Sri. Rajan Ambadath (President, Kumaramputhur Grama Panchayath) officially inaugurated the Social Life Wellness Programme, expressing support for initiatives that contribute to the welfare of the community. Dr Vasudevan Pillai, Principal of CCMY, Palakkad, delivered a keynote address, shedding light on the importance of premarital education and its positive impact on individuals and society. Mushtaq Ali CK, the Joint Coordinator, expressed gratitude to the sponsors, dignitaries, and participants for their support and involvement in making the program a reality.

The inaugural session set a promising start for the 'Pathway' Social Life Wellness Programme 2025, emphasizing the collaborative effort between the Coaching Centre for Minority Youth, Palakkad under the Directorate of Minority Welfare, Govt. of Kerala and MES Kalladi College to provide valuable premarital education. The engaging speeches and the commitment of all involved highlighted the importance of promoting healthy relationships and well-being within the community.

The Sessions started with a Brief introduction by the Course Coordinator or his assistants, and the Sessions concluded with a Vote of thanks from participants. The students also revealed their feedback in word and written format distributed among them.

As per the opinion of the participants, the entire course was very effective and beneficial to them. The Topics included in the course were closely related to family; which helped them to avail some tips, which are to be followed in their life. Most of the Sessions flourished with activities such as skits, sharing of personal experiences; and other group activities. In short, the course provides them with an overall picture of family life and molded them to run a successful married life

After the feedback session, Ms. Noosiya (Pathway Faculty) and Dr. Jaleel TK (Vice Principal, MES Kalladi College) distributed the certificates. At the end of the programme, a photo session was also conducted.
